2 Designing a Context-Free Grammar (UPL Homework)

Suppose we design an expression language with four binary operators $+$, $-$, $$ and $/$, in increasing precedence, that is, $+$ has the lowest precedence and $/$ has the highest one. Further assume that $+$ and $$ associate to the left whereas $-$ and $/$ associate to the right. Parentheses may be used to alter the evaluation order. Design such a context-free grammar.